WHEN: Sunday afternoon, April 28, 2013, from 1:00 PM to 5:30 PM

WHAT: A 1.7-mile walk to visit the sites of eight local religious institutions, where we will be invited inside to learn more about their faith traditions, local histories, and religious practices (“Journey to the Tent of Abraham: The First Step” took place in 2007.)

WHERE: Along the University Avenue Connective Corridor, from East Genesee Street to Comstock Avenue to Hendricks Chapel on the SU campus

FOR WHOM: Everyone! This event is free and open to all.

WHY: To bring together people of different faiths and cultures ... to enter freely into different places of worship ... to feel safe and welcomed as we experience other people’s traditions and rituals ... to share what makes us unique as well as what we all have in common ... to put aside judgment ... to open our hearts and minds ... to go where we might not have gone before!

WHAT’S IN A NAME? Abraham, the patriarch of Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and Bahá’í, welcomed everyone into his tent with hospitality and kindness.
